

Online advisory service system which offers professional information to identify and solve grassland management problems

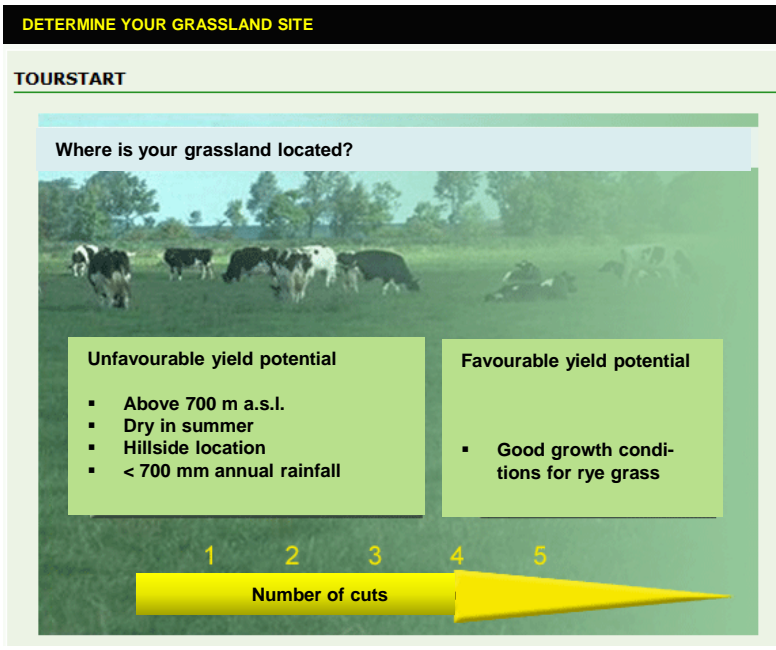

Provides farmers and advisors with substantial and easily understandable information:

- Analysis of grassland sward and forage quality
- Identification key for grasses
- Fertilisation of grassland considering legal requirements
- Pasture and grazing
- Improvement of grassland
- Description of weeds with photos of the plants and control measures
- Procedure in case of game damage
- Forage conservation, assessment and improvement of fermentation quality

Example: Analysis of grassland swards and forage quality

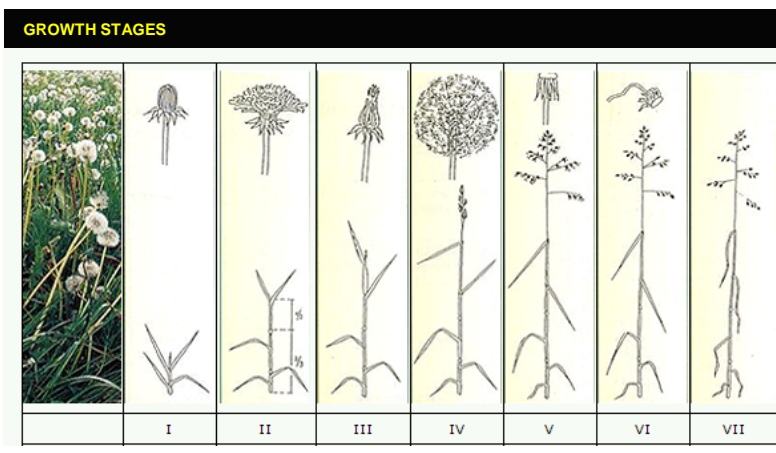

- Step by step determination of
 - Site conditions
 - Growth stage
 - Yield potential
 - Grassland type
 - Forage value
- Each step with descriptive charts and explanations

Determination of site conditions

Movie: demonstration of an easy method to analyse grassland swards

Determination of growth stage